A Few Notes...

 Are you a plumber? Would you like the opportunity to experience rural Alaska? Kaktovik Presbyterian Church has suffered freeze damage and is in need of plumbing work. There is about a week's worth of work to be done, including opening up and repairing walls to access the damage. We are looking for someone who has experience working with PEX tubing. Housing would be provided in the manse being repaired, which means you'd need to be comfortable using honey buckets and jugs for water. If you are interested, please contact the church office at 907-276-0914 or office@pbyukon.org.

 The Spring Presbytery meeting is quickly approaching. If you plan on attending and have not yet registered, please do so as soon as possible. If you need a registration form, please contact Melissa at 907-276-0914 or by email at office@pbyukon.org. Registration forms can be also be downloaded from our meeting website at www.pbyukon.org/presb_meeting.html

 Please note that all documents related to the upcoming Presbytery meeting are posted online at: www.pbyukon.org/presb_meeting.html. Please review them ahead of time, print them, and bring them with you if you would like copies with you at the meeting. There will be a limited number of copies available at the church on the day of the meeting.

National Presbyterian Cookbook

The First United Presbyterian Church of Clinton, Iowa is working on a National Presbyterian Cookbook. They are looking to incorporate recipes from churches around the country as a way to celebrate denominational heritage and raise additional funds for ministry. The first volume, Made with Love and God's Blessings, will be published before May 11, 2014 (just in time for Mothers' Day). This first volume would focus on main dishes, while future volumes will center on sides and salads, soups and sauces, and desserts and snacks. Information on these other publications will be available at a later date. For now, they need your main dish recipes.

If you would like to have your church highlighted, submit your main dish recipes through mail or e-mail before March 1, 2014 to:

First United Presbyterian Church
400 Fifth Ave. South
Clinton IA, 52732
Email: first.united.pres@gmail.com

Please include: at least one recipe, the name of your church/organization, and a brief description--no more than one page--of what you would like others to know about your church/organization (such as its history, its significant ministry, the community it serves, and so forth) and a photo (optional).

The anticipated price of each cookbook is still up in the air, but they will notify contributing churches first, granting them an extra discount per order. If you have any questions about this project, please email the church at the above address or call 563-243-1142.
