News of the Presbytery of Yukon

electronic edition

Issue 41

April 16, 2013

Dear Melissa,

The snow is melting, the birds are returning, the sun is warming. There is change all around us. And here in the Presbytery office, we are changing also.

April 30 is my last day in the Presbytery office. I am scaling back on my work hours, so this is a partial retirement. I will continue working a few hours a week at United Protestant Church in Palmer, which is a lot closer to my home. I've been here for 9 wonderful years. I have especially enjoyed getting to know so many of you, sharing many of your hurts and your joys. You all have a special place in my heart. I'm going to miss everyone. (But I may see you at a presbytery meeting in the future, as an elder commissioner!)

Melissa O'Malley is the new administrative assistant for the Presbytery. She is a warm, caring person who brings new creative enthusiasm to the job. She will also be very capable of taking care of your presbytery needs. I think you'll enjoy getting to know her.

Sincerely,
Jan Burger
Admin Assistant
Presbytery of Yukon

Recent Baptisms:

Let us rejoice with these churches who recently baptized new people into the body of the faithful:

Nuiqsut--25 infants, children and adults

Utqiagvik--In Barrow we baptized 15 children and 4 adults on Easter, with more scheduled for later in April and May.

Kaktovik--one infant

1st Korean Anchorage--one adult and one youth on Easter Sunday.

Immanuel--Easter Sunday we baptized one adult and received her and eight others into Immanuel membership - by profession of faith and transfer of membership

United Protestant Church--1 infant on March 17

Are there other churches we can join with in the rejoicing?
