Inupiaq Gathering in Fairbanks

There will be an Inupiaq Gathering sponsored by the Presbytery of Yukon of the PC(USA), and the Alaska Synod of the ELCA Lutherans on May 22nd. We will gather for a potluck meal at 6 p.m. at University Community Presbyterian Church in Fairbanks, followed by a brief time of worship led by Rev. Curt Karns. Our worship will remember how God blessed the Inupiat Christian fellowships in Fairbanks in the past and explore whether there is still a need for an Inupiat Christian fellowship in Fairbanks.

Join Us for the Anchorage Charity Walk!

The 17th Annual Visitor Industry Charity Walk will be held in Anchorage on Friday, May 13th, 2016. This 5K Charity Walk is a fun, springtime event that raises money for local nonprofits. Enjoy food and fun while raising funds for the Presbytery of Yukon. Our team will be raising money for the new Gambell Church Building project. Walkers stroll through the streets of downtown Anchorage, stopping at food stations along the way to taste treats prepared by Anchorage area restaurants. All the food along the route is included in the registration fee.

The walk begins at the Dena'ina Center, located at 7th Ave. between F & G streets, in downtown Anchorage. The walk ends at the Dena'ina Center where more food, music, and prizes await walkers

Sign Up for Summer Camp at Bingle

Bingle Camp is excited to announce that their 2016 Summer schedule is now online! Check it out at: <http://binglecamp.org/>

There are some exciting new additions to the schedule and they are adding new services, such as one-way transportation TO camp for the first 25 campers for each week, who sign up and pay the $20 fee (parents will still be responsible to pick campers up after camp)

Camp times have been extended this year to start at 4:30 on Sunday and end at 4:30 on Friday. They are also offering daytime or 1 over-night weekend retreats to churches who agree to hold services in our Chapel, that are open to the local community, either Saturday evening or Sunday morning.
