practice today. An event of the Ecumenical Stewardship Center, this live streamed site is sponsored by the Alaska Synod of the Evangelical Lutheran Church in America (ELCA). Cost is $25 per person (includes lunch) with a max of $50 per congregation. The four plenary sessions will each be followed by facilitated conversations. Featuring these four Plenary Sessions and leaders:

Dr. L. Edward Phillips,

Welcome Derrick and Alene Zuk to the Chapel of the Mountains located in the interior of Alaska's Anaktuvuk Pass. Derek and Alene arrived last month (October 2019) after participating in the annual Kingdom Air church camp for Anaktuvuk Pass. He is the Youth Education Christian Director of the church and he and his wife moved into the manse. The Chapel of the Mountains recently hosted the IAM Healing and Renewal Service the 26th of October to the 28th.

Associate Professor of Worship and Liturgical Theology at Candler School of Theology, will present an historical and theological review of the offering in Judeo/Christian culture.

Robert Hay, Jr., Senior Ministry Relations Officer, Southeast for the Presbyterian Foundation, will share about cultural influences on the offering including technology, generational differences, and the current place of church in society.

Stewardship and fundraising consultant Lori Guenther Reesor will share a presentation on best practices for the offering and how to make the offering a meaningful moment when faith communities gather.

IAM Healing and Renewal Director Dorothy Bekoalok in Anaktuvuk Pass.

Melvin Amerson, Stewardship Consultant for the Texas Methodist Foundation, will give a presentation about the offering as an act of worship, discipleship, and mission.
